SEASEA

Without giving any specific reason, will sacrifice Dress Goods this week:

150 pieces of 46-inch French Cashmeres, new shades and really worth 75c, will be sold at forty-nine (49) cts. per yard; width, bear in mind, is 46 inches, not 36 inches, nor 38, nor 40, but 46 inches wide, at 49c.

58 pieces of the new fabric Cashmere Empress, in all fashionable colors (40 inches wide) will be sold at 39c; an imitator of ours recently advertised these goods at 48c, so it's worth while remembering that Seal's price is 39c.

100 pieces of double width English Cabarge in Spring shades will be sold at 15c and don't think any other form sales less than 25c.

Hundreds of equally great bargains in Dress Goods will be offered. Also about a thousand Remnants at one-half their cost to us.

PROVIDENCE
Helps those who help themselves. Nature has provided herbs for the cure of human ailments and endued certain leaf, flower and their healing powers, and the proper combinations necessary to compel disease. The result of these discoveries and combinations is
MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.
For many years it has been noted in every county of Kansas and Utah Nevada, Montana, Colorado, Arizona, Washington Territory, and everything in the great mid-continent. Thousands of testimonials have been given, and it is now popular wherever introduced.
J. D. Mishler, Superintendent of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, writes: "I have used Mishler's Herb Bitters in my family for the past two years, and have found them a most excellent medicine. I have also given them to my neighbors, and they all speak highly of them. I have also used them for myself, and have found them a most excellent medicine. I have also given them to my neighbors, and they all speak highly of them."

The Adams & Westlake WATER HEATER

HEATED BY GAS.

The above cut shows the manner of supplying hot water throughout a house. The water is passed through a wrought-iron coil (which, once connected, runs the lifetime of a fire) in the kitchen stove; and back to the tank, and thence throughout the house. A thermometer on the tank can be located in any room.

We do not sell the stove, as it remains in Chicago. We furnish only the tank, coil, and couplings. The tank, being the ordinary tank used through commerce and with Bangor, can be purchased at any plumbers.

The same stoves can be obtained by using an A. & W. 3-burner Oil Stove.

LOGAN'S SEAT.

Marriage Willing to Withdraw When Any One's Chances Are Better Than His.

Sixty Twenty-two Representatives and Two Senators Present in the Joint Convention.

The New Railroad and Warehouse Commission Decide to Sanction Wednesday —Other Legislative Business.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 3.—[Special.] The proposition to hold a meeting of prominent Citizens Democratic in this city at this session for the purpose of denouncing upon terms of intruding Col. Morrison to withdraw from the Senatorial contest and leave the field for some more promising candidate was practically disposed of in advance of the assembling of nearly all of the Citizen delegations and the instinct to secure the attendance of their home corporals was most natural. The real reason for abandoning the proposition was doubtless more significant. It was the result of information received by leading Logan Democrats here that the outside sentiment was against it. Col. Morrison is an honest, capable, and popular man, and already has pronounced in his favor a majority of the Democratic members of the Legislature. Many of these would have to submit to a humiliating defeat if they should attempt to force him to withdraw. He expressed the willingness to withdraw whenever it was certain that his withdrawal would result in Democratic success. But he is not willing to withdraw in favor of a candidate who is not acceptable to the Democratic members of the Legislature, and who is not likely to receive the votes of a majority of the Democratic members. The Democratic members of the Legislature are not willing to withdraw from the contest and leave the field to Logan. They are not willing to withdraw from the contest and leave the field to Logan. They are not willing to withdraw from the contest and leave the field to Logan.

THE JOINT SESSION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 3.—[Special.] The Democrats in Washington are devoted in opinion as to the possibility of Morrison's withdrawal, but are united in the belief that no further effort will be made to withdraw him or withdrawal until a State Democratic Convention shall have been held. There do not believe that any other candidate can be agreed upon. It appears that John... and Senate had some very serious talk... Friday evening a caucus was held... The Democrats of the two houses and the other to the joint... At the latter meeting a committee... was authorized to be chosen... The committee... Democrats... and the caucus... Democrats... Democratic votes were cast in the local election at Springfield, Saturday, for United States Senator. Twenty of these were for Harrison.

Many of the young men and many officers who have enjoyed a life of elegant leisure in Washington for some years past are being sent to the field regimentally or their staffs.

Hostilities between Guatemala and the alleged Republics, San Salvador, Costa Rica, and Nicaragua, have been suspended, an armistice of one month's duration having been declared.

A Chicago of coal among subject at $40,000, consisting of a 10-acre business property, between Canal-street and Twenty-fourth street, with the premises No. 1000, was made yesterday by Hon. J. Monis to Leroy Pierce.

Four thousand people were present last night at an enthusiastic Republican ratification meeting at Rotary D'Amory. Lucas Wall presided. Among the speakers were Gen. Logan, State Senator W. C. Kueck, Judge Sidney Smith, and John F. Farnsworth.

Those in your independent among the citizens on the Cross-Creek reservation, Wyandot county, number 1,000 families, at the extinguishment of the lands to settlement is to be avoided. If, as is likely, they are to stand to some expulsion trouble may attend.

M. de Persigny's efforts to form a new French Ministry continue to be discouraged by the Opportunists. One Cabinet list was arranged by President Grevy, but a preliminary meeting of the new Ministers ended in a row, and there was a speedy dissolution. It is thought not impossible that ex-Premier Ferry may be invited to power.

THE WORLD has informed the Washington that if the present British military system in the Crimea are maintained fully one-half the troops will die or be disabled by the time before the autumn. This report is supposed to indicate the proposed withdrawal of the whole British force from the Crimea and a complete abandonment of the Pitt expedition.

Cancer society is left in England exercising the exception of the Prince of Wales in Ireland. The loyalists are very zealous, but the masses are angry and it would be easy to arouse them to violence. The Prince and Princess will leave London for Ireland next Tuesday night. The reception at Kingstown will be the official beginning of the Irish tour.

The resignation of Minister of Internal Revenue Clarke, which was requested by President Grant, will not be accepted, of course, and perhaps not at all. The Attorney-General wanted to give active, progressive Talbot of Maryland the place, but Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller protested vociferously, and it is understood that the President intervened in vain.

Ismail Pasha, ex-Khedive of Egypt, says that England and Italy, monopoly or allied, could never conquer and hold the Soudan, owing to the unknown nature of that country, its dangerous climate, and wild character. He thinks that England has now realized these facts and is at present improving with a view to abandoning the Soudan as soon as it can be done without malignant hate.

Mayor of Gen. Grant's troops have returned to Seattle, having only a small garrison at the aforesaid mouth. Today the guns will be turned and the earthworks levied to the ground. The guards and the four Seattle Volks contingent will start for their Sunday to clear the way for the railroad, after the manner of Justice the aforesaid guard will grant contract to Chicago. Gen. Dyer is said to be a Methodist, a strong partisan and by Gen. Logan. Gen. Graham has telegraphed to the Government quoting the lawyer, salesman, and dealer of the troops.

The meeting contemplated by the Union Democrats at Washington, the object of which was to determine upon means of defeating Col. Morrison in attendance from the Presidential contest, was given up because of information received that Col. Morrison had already been urged so strongly as possible to abandon the struggle. His reply is said to have been that he would withdraw whenever it appeared that somebody else's chances were better than his own, but not before. Advices, by means to wait until the new State Senator has taken his seat and a test ballot has been taken.

Gen. Asa C. Dodge, United States Claims Agent at Chicago, received a telegram from Commissioner Black yesterday requesting his resignation, to take effect June 30. In his telegram the Commissioner stated that the request was made for no reason personal or relating to the management of his office. Inasmuch as the last received his appointment from the President, Mr. Dodge feels grieved the Commissioner's communication and telegraphed to Mr. Clarkson saying that, as there was no reason for his dismissal, the method in vogue, Mr. Dodge thought was unfair. Mr. Dodge's term expires, of course, years ago, on the death of Gen. Van Dorn, who held the office before him.

The Chicago produce market was very subdued yesterday and practically dull. Only were bid by wheat, the principal feature in which was the opening of a line of shorts 1,000,000 bushels, which had borrowed on the prime matter in the mail. Going from a social standpoint.

In the current number of the Cincinnati [illegible] there will contribute a paper on "The Actor's Calling," which, however, can hardly be said to deal, either in point of style or argument, in a repulsive exhibition to the friends of the profession. The writer, who signs himself "Thespis," and whose [illegible] is legibly to us to refer to him right like a footman or even dirt, has certainly some [illegible] to announce, and [illegible] from that to the [illegible] of subscription to a trial attempt." Gounod's "Mirella" to Be Arranged by Col. Mapleson—An Amusing Story.

Opening of the Opera Festival This Week, and the Program for Each Night.

Gounod's "Mirella," as arranged by Col. Mapleson.

Miss Nevada, in an interview with a San Francisco critic, gives her opinion of the opera of "Mirella" to which she is to appear Wednesday evening. The representation is to be given as follows:

"Are you also Mirella, the sole agent?"

"Yes, indeed," answered Emma Nevada in her cheery voice. "It is a lovely little opera, I believe I am to ender my first appearance in it Friday, if not sooner. I like that opera for many reasons. More than all, it is not a new and worn, hackneyed, threadbare, and tiresome opera, but one which has been for some years in the repertoire of Italy. It will not appear to be an attempt to 'Mirella.'

"What is the plot of 'Mirella?'"

"It is a long and powerful tragedy. Mirella, the daughter of countryman to a basket. She goes to all the open entertainments where I am to sing. Vincenzo, my artist lover, is also there. Mirella has overheard it."

It was the knight that followed the even- ing's entertainment.

"Do not you think Nevada is Mr. Maplesons greatest engagement? Next season he is going to Europe, and will take with him Nevada, Eames, Calvé, Melba, Scalchi, and Gerster."

"Then of the plot of 'Mirella?'"

"Mirella is a poor girl from Arles, in the south of France, who goes to Avignon to ask the aid of the Queen of Provence in behalf of her father, who is in prison. She is accompanied by Vincenzo, a young artist, and a peddler, disguised as a woman. Mirella is in the power of the Provencal queen, who wishes to marry her to a rich nobleman. Mirella, however, loves Vincenzo, and they run away. They are pursued by the queen's soldiers, and Mirella, to escape from them, throws herself into the Rhone. She is rescued by Vincenzo, and they are married. The queen, touched by their devotion, gives them her blessing."

Music Notes.

The Chicago Musical College will give a concert at Central Music Hall this evening.

The Chicago Amateur Club gave a very enjoyable concert at Central Music Hall Monday evening.

The Chicago Amateur Club gave a very enjoyable concert at Central Music Hall Thursday evening, assisted by Mr. Hamilton Mabie, reader, and Mr. Frederick Grant Gleason, pianist.

The next concert of the amateur club will be given Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Auditorium recital hall. The soloists will be Miss Jay Fay, Miss Grace Hamilton, violinist, and Mr. Arthur Dunham, pianist.

Mr. S. Archambault and Mr. C. Lehmkuhl, pianists of Miss Jessie Ferrer, gave a concert of classical music at Hull House music room Wednesday evening. The program consisted principally of selections from Bach, Liszt, Mendelssohn, Chopin, and Raff.

The concert that Wilson J. Ware and John Jeffreys will soon organize in opera company is now said to be another in a host of the Ware- Jeffreys enterprises. Among those who will be heard in the company are Miss Ware, Miss Jay Fay, Messrs. Jeffreys, Ware, Mabie, Hoyle, and Hastie.

A New York paper speaks of the concert that Miss Emma and Miss Alice Juch are soon to give with the renowned violinist upon engagement in this city. Do the artists not appear in Chicago? If so, the announcement has escaped the notice of many musicians.

At the Sunday service of the New Unitarian Church this morning the choir will sing Gounod's "Te Deum" and "Adoro Devote," Harvey's anthem, "Blessed Rest, now Day," and Foote's Kyrie, "Hear Me, Lord." A solo, "Benedictus" (Mendelssohn), will be sung by Miss Lucie Chase.

The concerting season for this City Hall city, the Swedish, will take place on Lyon & Healy's music room Wednesday evening. Miss Ida Fries, soprano; Miss Schoenberg, violinist; Mr. Hamerik, pianist; Dr. H. Rosenthal, baritone; Mr. Tyrrell, accompanist, and Miss Mercer, the harpist, will appear in the evening program.

The Carrington English opera company are to begin an engagement April 22 at a new place of amusement called the Princess Opera House, on Madison street, near Union avenue. Miss Marie Van Zile, Miss Clara Lane, Miss E. C. Morris, Messrs. G. W. Chase, Frank Lawler, Arthur Donaldson, Jr., and a chorus of sixteen voices and orchestra of twelve pieces will be the attractions. The opening bill will be "Olivette." The company has been playing in Milwaukee, and will go from there to other cities not in the association.

THE SENTINELS.

The Knights took up arms last night and the men were seated in the seats of the mighty. The Grand Army kept up the Progressive Drum and Fife Corps, and it gave the old veterans a rousing welcome. Between 800 and 900 of the Union Veterans took seats in the Auditorium. The Knights were entertaining their guests in the Knights of Pythias Hall, located in the Auditorium Annex, and the veterans were left to themselves. Gen. Logan's appearance on the platform was the signal for a general rush to the balcony, and they soon had every seat taken. When the Knights came along, and they were seated in the parquet, the veterans were in the balcony, and they could be seen from the parquet seats. The Grand Army men were all in uniform, and the Knights were in citizens' clothes. The Knights marched down the aisles to the music of the Grand March from "Tannhäuser," played by the Progressive Drum and Fife Corps, and they were followed by the veterans, who had a hard time finding seats. The Knights were all seated in the parquet, but on the left of the Union veterans were seated the Ladies of the G. A. R., and on the right were the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans. The Knights and veterans were all seated by 8 o'clock, and then the Knights began to sing. They sang "America," and then the veterans joined in, and the effect was grand. The Knights sang "Auld Lang Syne," and then the veterans sang it. The Knights sang "Marching Through Georgia," and the veterans joined in, and the effect was grand. The Knights sang "Auld Lang Syne," and then the veterans sang it. The Knights sang "Marching Through Georgia," and the veterans joined in, and the effect was grand.

THE SPEECHES.

Gen. Logan was the first speaker introduced, and he was received with cheers. He said: "Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic and Knights of Pythias: I am glad to meet you here this evening, and I am glad to see you all looking so well. I am glad to see you all looking so well. I am glad to see you all looking so well.

RUSSIA AND ENGLAND.

DIPLOMACY.

LONDON, April 5.—[Special Cable.] The Pall Mall Gazette, the liberal organization on the affairs Prussian Government, is opposed to the agitation over the reported concessions made by England to Russia. On the one hand, Russia, after much time, has consented to accept Granville's request to avoid her acquiescence to the Penjdeh affair, and on the other hand, England has consented to arbitrate the frontier, and has agreed to accept the occupation as a compromise between Penjdeh. We may then submit to arbitration, but it is now reported that no concession is, and that the Russian basis for arbitration.

THE CZAR'S STRONG.

LONDON, April 5.—The Times, in a second editorial, approves the agreement made between the Powers at Petersburg and the Earl of Dufferin. Parliament's expression of confidence in Lord Granville having been received by cable in Russia, the Czar's Government, the Times has been successful in using the power to London on the point of the treaty.

The Chronicle, in its leader this afternoon, but under consideration the acceptance of England's proposals concerning the Afghan boundary line as soon as they reach Petersburg, says: All Foreign Office Russians, up to the Czar, for Russia. The Russian envoys seem to demand a separate agreement, but nothing more than a provisional settlement. It is clear, in order to fix Granville's proposal that Russia agree to confer the Afghan boundary upon the Czar's decision, and to submit the case of arbitration to the Queen's arbitrator, provided the case is not considered as to exclude the territory which Russia claims to retain Afghanistan.

RUSSIA'S CONCESSIONS ACCEPTED.

LONDON, April 5.—[Special Cable.] Russia has finally accepted the proposals of England, and has consented to the appointment of a joint commission to settle the Afghan boundary question. The Russian Government has also agreed to withdraw its troops from Penjdeh, and to allow the Afghans to occupy that place. THE BRITISH JOURNALS.

VIEWS OF THE PRESS.

LONDON, April 5.—[Special Cable.] Commenting yesterday's Cabinet council, the London papers make a favorable impression on the other Powers, but the people are not in the least excited. Under the circumstances, the Government is not likely to call Parliament together before the regular time, which is the 30th inst. The Standard says: The Government has not yet received the official dispatches from Russia, but the Government is not likely to call Parliament together before the regular time, which is the 30th inst. THE CZAR'S PICTURE SOLD.

The Royal Gazette of Nova Scotia, Halifax, publishes a letter from Sydney, C. B., dated March 30, which says: The Czar's picture was sold by auction in this city to-day. The sale was conducted by the Sheriff, and the proceeds were applied to the payment of a debt due by the Czar to the Bank of Nova Scotia. The picture was sold for $1,000.

The Traveling Men's Protective Association met at the Palmer last evening to hear a report from the committee in charge with the contemplated car for the use of members of the association on the occasion of the annual parade August 7. It was stated that the patronage from the association would be sufficient to warrant the purchase of the car, which will be used for the entertainment of members, their families and friends on such occasions.

City Engineer Ackerman made his customary spring visit of inspection to the Calumet avenue sewer yesterday. He found a sufficient current running in the sewer to justify him in ordering the flushers to stop their work. The sewer is now in good condition, and the engineer feels confident that the Bridgeport sewer will be completed by the time it is needed.

The first camp in Illinois of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America was organized at a meeting held at the Pacific hall night, with thirty charter members. The order has for its objects the cultivation of good American principles, opposition to foreign interference, the preservation of the Constitution and the preservation of free education. Each camp has a lodge room and an auxiliary to members' wives.

The legislative committee selected from both parties yesterday afternoon, most of the members going home to remain over Sunday. It is the unanimous wish and intention that the session of a month or three days, the recess to be taken until Monday, April 14. The committee will then meet in Springfield, having three days each for taking testimony in Chicago, hearing from those there and the remainder of the time in Springfield. The committee will then report to the House, which will probably adjourn sine die May 1. The committee has not yet determined whether it will hold any meetings during the recess.

Mayor Harrison has received a letter from Mayor Low, of New York, in which the latter says that he has appointed Commissioner Bingham, president of the Board of Education, to represent him at the meeting of the Municipal Association of the United States, to be held in Chicago April 15. Mayor Low says that he has appointed Commissioner Bingham because he is a member of the Board of Education, and because he is also a member of the Municipal Association of the United States, and because he is also a member of the Municipal Association of the United States, and because he is also a member of the Municipal Association of the United States

The Market.

The situation may be summarized by saying that the sales of the cheaper property in some part of the city continue; that the demand for this is still good; that there is no material weakness for the moment, that a good many transactions were closed during the week, and that there was a considerable increase in the number of inquiries and applications for property. Owners who have been anxious to sell at a sacrifice have been more reasonable in their demands, and buyers who have been holding back, not having got in the market, are now coming forward. Some of the business activity is due to the approach of a period of year, as the end of a large number of leases expires on the 1st of May. There is no general desire to sell property, however, and the volume of business is not large. It is not expected that there will be any material change in the situation before the autumn season. It would seem that the market is in a condition to be affected by any considerable movement in either direction. There is no general desire to sell property, and there is no pressure to buy. The market is in a waiting condition, and it is not probable that there will be any material change in the situation before the autumn season.
